RE: EEOC v. Tavern on the Green P'ship Ltd., 07 CV 8256 (CM) (AJP)

Dear Judge Peck:

BY FAX

On behalf of Plaintiff EEOC, I write regarding the status of settlement discussions and discovery in the above referenced matter. At this point, EEOC and Defendant have reached an agreement on many substantive terms, including the monetary value, necessary to settle this suit. While there are still issues to be worked through, a resolution of this matter seems promising. In light of the progress in the settlement discussions, continued discovery does not appear warranted at this point. If resuming discovery becomes necessary, because the matter cannot be settled, and the parties cannot agree on a deposition schedule, EEOC will then seek court intervention as needed.

If the Court would like additional information, I can be reached at (212) 336-3703.

Sincerely,
